

Undergraduate Medical Education
Rotation Specific Objectives: Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery

1. To examine at least one wound and be able to describe the phases of wound healing and relate these phases to types of wound dressings.
2. To be able to describe the reconstructive ladder and have an appreciation of at least one of its techniques after attending at least one reconstructive procedure.
3. To be able to conduct a basic examination of the hand with recognition and understanding of management principles for hand injuries.
4. To be able to suture at least one wound under supervision.
5. To be able to describe the features of one of the three common skin cancers: Basal Cell Carcinoma, Squamous Cell Carcinoma or Malignant Melanoma.